

Q Have many people opted for the self managed fund option?

A Over the years SMSF have experienced rapid growth, with 31 December 2005 stats showing that there are more than 310,000 funds with over $200 billion in Assets in Australia.

Q Can SRC help with the ongoing administration of my SMSF?

A YES, SRC have an optional annual admin service if required.

Q Is a Self Managed Super Fund for me?

A If greater control over your own financial destiny, as well as potential cost savings, sounds like sense to you, then you ought to give the option of managing your own superannuation very serious consideration.

- You'll need to follow some basic rules.
- You'll need to invest a little effort.
- And, of course, you may want to get some advice from a trusted professional adviser. (SRC do not hold a AFSL).

But if all those things sound like you, the answer is 'YES', you can manage your own super fund.

Common Questions & Answers

Q What is a DIY super fund?

A A DIY fund is a simplified term for a Self Managed Superannuation Fund which is run by you for you.

Q Who can have a DIY fund?

A Just about anybody is the simple answer, you do not need to be a business owner nor have large sums of money to open a DIY fund.

Q What are the advantages of managing my own fund?

- A Basically -
- Control - You choose how your assets are invested.
 - Your money in your bank account.
 - Flexibility to take your super from employer to employer.
 - Tax and cost savings.

Q Can I access my super for reasons other than investments?

A The purpose of superannuation is to grow wealth for your retirement. However there are provisions for early release of funds for reasons such as hardship, ill-health and compassionate grounds i.e. where a member does not have the financial capacity to meet an expense (ATO conditions apply).

Q Can I use any bank?

A The choice of banking institution is entirely up to you.

Q Can I choose which fund my employer pays my super into ?

A Yes, the super choice legislation allows most Australians to instruct their employer to pay their superannuation contributions into their Self Managed Super Fund.

Q How much money do I need to start a Self Managed Super Fund?

A There is no legislation that specifies a minimum amount.

Q How many members can there be?

A Your fund can have a minimum of one and up to four members. They do not need to be related.

Q Can my Self Managed Super Fund be of help if I were to fall ill?

A Yes a SMSF allows you access to a range of benefit options in times of sickness and ill health.

Q Can I pay myself a pension before I retire at age 65 and remain working?

A From the age of 55, members of a DIY fund born before 1 July 1960 have the unique ability to access their superannuation as a pension whilst still working. (Transition to retirement).

Q What happens to my funds assets when I die?

A The trust deeds we supply to the fund has provisions for this and allows you to look after your family when a member dies by being able to provide lump sum payments or income streams to a members spouse, children or grandchildren.

Q Can I split my super with my spouse?

A Yes. It is possible for a member to split their benefits with their spouse. Spouse includes a de facto spouse under the superannuation laws.
